

FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH OF PENSACOLA

SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY

February 12, 2017 | 9:30 A.M.

5-Week Series in the Sermon on the Mount (Matthew 5-7)

WELCOME

Welcome to First United Methodist Church, we are delighted that you have chosen to worship with us this morning. Founded in 1821, First Church is the oldest Protestant church in the area and the oldest Methodist church in Florida. This historic church, with four regular Sunday services, has a membership of 3200 and is overflowing with life. If you are visiting, we hope that you will consider becoming a member of our church family. You may join any Sunday by profession of faith or transfer of membership. Come and be a part of what God is doing here in 2017.

SERMON ON THE MOUNT

We are currently in the middle of a 5-week sermon series on The Sermon on the Mount. The Sermon on the Mount, found in the Gospel according to Matthew in chapters 5 through 7, includes some of the best known teachings of Jesus such as the Beatitudes and The Lord's Prayer. Dr. Wachob and the Rev. Bures are using the lectionary scriptures to lead us through the sermon in each of our services during this series. If you've missed any part of the series, you can watch or listen to the previous weeks' sermons on the church's website, FUMCPensacola.com. Make plans to join us the last two weeks of the series.

NURSERY & CHILDREN'S BULLETINS

Nursery is available this morning for children up to five years old. If you need help locating the nursery, please see an usher or greeter for assistance. Also, children's worship bulletins and crayons are available in the narthex.

VISITOR/NEW MEMBER CLASS

We welcome all visitors and new members that are interested in learning more about First Church to an introductory class that consists of four parts. The class assembles at 9:30am in room PH101 next door in the Perry Home. Today's class, Ministries of First Church, is about all the programs and ministries of the church. Next week, February 19, Serving at First Church will help you find your place to use your gifts and talents in service in the church and community. On February 26, Tour of First Church will walk you through the historic buildings of our campus. We hope you join us each week.

FLOWERS

The flowers in the Sanctuary today are given to the glory of God and in celebration of Anne and Gerald Woolard's 60th wedding anniversary on Valentine's Day.

HYMN NOTES

"All Creatures of Our God and King" (words by Francis of Assisi, ca. 1125)—The life of the founder of the Franciscan monastic order is most astounding. Born to wealth, he forsook all for a life of asceticism, mysticism, and charitable works with the sick and downtrodden. It is said that he even preached to the birds and they listened! An early environmentalist, his "Canticle of the Sun" (from which this hymn was taken) was the first genuine religious poem in the Italian language. St. Francis saw all of nature and everything – including death (read stanza 6) – as praising God.

THOSE SERVING TODAY

9:30. GREETERS—Dona Hill & Carol Ross. USHERS—Wayne Sumlin, Martha Rogers & Jake Odom. COMMUNION STEWARDS—Amy Voeltz & Kelly Davies. COMMUNION SERVERS—Ruth Klarner & Diane Ward.

TODAY'S LECTONARY SCRIPTURES

First Lesson: Deuteronomy 30:15-20. From Moses' final sermon: There are two ways—life and prosperity or death and endless troubles. The way of life requires us to walk in God's ways and not bow down to or serve any other gods.

Psalms: 119:1-8. It is in following the ways of God that true happiness is found. "Happy are those whose way is blameless, who walk in the law of the Lord."

Second Lesson: 1 Corinthians 3:1-9. Despite their spiritual riches, Christians in Corinth were still living by the flesh as cliques forming around preferred leaders. To live by the Spirit is to recognize they are God's field, God's building.

Gospel Lesson: Matthew 5:21-37. Sermon on the Mount continued. "You have heard it said... but I tell you." Jesus addresses the people about the ways of life and death in an exposition on the commandments.

DAILY READINGS

(Find new daily readings in each week's bulletin in 2017)

The daily readings expand the range of biblical reading in worship and personal devotion by providing daily citations for the full three-year cycle of the Revised Common Lectionary. These readings complement the Sunday readings: Monday through Wednesday readings help the reader reflect on and digest what they heard in worship; Thursday through Saturday readings help prepare the reader for the Sunday ahead.
